STABLE OF W. H. KARRICK

Horses of W. R. Coe and Quincy Stable Make Up His Charges.

Terentia and Elfin Queen Expected to Prove to Be His Star Racers.

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 21.—William H. Karrick has thirty-five horses in his care at Belmont Park. Of these twenty-eight are the property of W. R. Coe, six belong to the Oneck Stable and one, Dendera, will race in the colors of Charles F. Hill, who looks after the interest of the Clarence Mackay thoroughbreds in this country. It is a promising stable, one that will surely have to be reckoned with when the sport begins. It is more convincing from the fact that of this number but one has attained the age of four, the remainder being two and three-year-olds, the majority being two-year-olds. Mr. Karrick is what might be termed rich in three-year-old fillies, having two, Elfin Queen and Terentia, which, barring Commander Ross' Milkmaid, will probably command the rest in the filly stakes, and possibly give the colts an argument worthy of their sex in open races. Last year Elfin Queen was a bright star in the early weeks, winning everything before her until she had to be shelved when her chances of being the champion youngster were exceedingly brilliant.

Her last race was in the United States Hotel Stakes at Saratoga. For a half mile she raced with the speedy High Time and Dunboyne, and then something happened causing her to fall back. Mr. Karrick had a second entry in the race in Terentia, from Mr. Coe's string, which finished third to Billy Kelly and Dunboyne, after coming from a long way in the rear. Considering the fact that Elfin Queen had always shown to be a much better filly than Terentia, it can be safely predicted but for the failure of Elfin Queen she would certainly have been a decided factor in the race, as Terentia was only beaten two lengths and a half by Billy Kelly and one length by Dunboyne. War Pennant was a contender and finished a length and a half behind Terentia. Taking this race as a line it indicates that Elfin Queen was pretty near the equal of, if not better than, either Billy Kelly or Dunboyne, especially as she had before proved in public to be almost ten pounds better than Terentia in the Astoria Stakes at Aqueduct, in which she finished second to Terentia, conceding the latter twelve pounds in weight and being beaten in a driving finish by only a half length.

Prior to that Elfin Queen had a string of victories excepting in her maiden race, in which she had an exceedingly rough experience, being cut off several times, which unquestionably prevented her from winning. If this filly comes back to her best form of last year she seems decidedly the best of the weaker sex in her division.

In Terentia Mr. Karrick has a mighty fine filly, one that is entitled to all serious consideration. She is a good weight packer, in her last race taking up 136 pounds and running Merry Princess to a length, giving her eighteen pounds. Her prior race was at Belmont Park, in which she conceded about eighteen pounds to War Pennant and brought him to a drive to beat her by a length and a half. Whether she is a good mud runner is a question. She won a race in the slop at Belmont Park, which is not a positive criterion, Belmont Park always having a solid foundation, and raced second to Hannibal over a heavy course in the Saratoga Special, being beaten five lengths in a race that did not compare with other races run the same day from a time standpoint. In other starts in heavy going she did not loom up prominently, hence it is fair to presume that Terentia is not at home when the track is deep in mud. Elfin Queen is likely to perform much better in the mud than Terentia, as she beat Hannibal in the slop at Belmont Park and simply cantered home in the Fashion Stakes two days later over a slow track. Through the Hannibal line Elfin Queen is a far better heavy track racer than Terentia.

DOMESTIC-BRED TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

Outside of these two fillies there is a wide gap before reaching the next best in Karrick's three-year-old division. Sweep On is a good colt and Over There will win races, but there is no comparison between these two and Elfin Queen and Terentia. The only handicap horses Mr. Karrick has will have to come from the three-year-olds, as Nutcracker has little to recommend him. Thunderclap, from the Oneck Stable, may prove a useful horse, having several victories to his credit, though he only beat rather common horses. Should he improve on his form he might develop into a useful sort of horse, though it is doubtful if he will race himself into high estimation. Outside of Elfin Queen and Terentia Mr. Karrick will have to depend upon his two-year-olds to gather in any stakes. There is no predicting what he will do in this department at present and, while he may have preferences among his eighteen, he can give no assurance of their promise until he has given them a fair trial, both in private and publicly. Nearly every two-year-old in the stable is domestic-bred, many of the Coe band being Star Shoots, the remainder being by a mixed lot of stallions, including Disguise, Celt and the English horses Corcyra and Sir Archibald. The Oneck Stable has a beautifully bred filly by Sweep—Kaskaskia, and two by Celt, dams Orowoc and Lady Godiva. Should the Sweep—Kaskaskia filly inherit the qualities of both her sire and dam, bright things are in store for her. Her mater was a fine race mare and the progeny of Sweep have been wonderful.

So far as jockeys are concerned, trainer Karrick is well off, having Fairbrother, McAtee and Myers under contract. While they may not be quite up to the class of Loftus, Robinson and one or two others, they are much better than the majority. Fairbrother had an average almost as good as Robinson last year, while McAtee and Myers were well up in the middle division of riders. They scale from 111 pounds down to 100 pounds, Fairbrother being the heaviest and Myers the lightest.

Following is the list of horses in the Karrick stable, with their respective owners:

DISAPPOINTING RACING OF MOST OF THE WELL-BRED HORSES WHICH COMPOSED THE KENTUCKY STABLE OF LAST YEAR

The Kentucky Stable of Messrs. Drake and Chinn raced a number of horses last year which lacked nothing in the way of high-class breeding, but, with the exception of three, they did little effective in racing. The English-bred two-year-old Chasseur ran well enough to make a good three-year-old this year and was the stable's best money winner. He won the Wakefield Handicap at the Empire City meeting in July, but his best race was in the United States Hotel Stakes at Saratoga, in which, with 119 pounds up, he finished fifth to Billy Kelly, Dunboyne, Terentia and War Pennant, with Eternal, High Time, Sir Barton, Routledge and Elfin Queen among the nine which finished behind him. That was pretty good form. Another English colt, the four-year-old Torchbearer, proved himself a fast horse at a mile and won nearly as much money as Chasseur did. Nightstick, one of the evrgreen sons of Broomstick, could still race well and was the stable's third best winner. The others were disappointments and the record of the stable was:

W. P. BURCH HORSES TO RACE AT BOWIE

String Well Advanced in Training After Wintering Well at Benning Track.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 21.—The horses of the variously owned stable William P. Burch is fitting at Benning track for the spring meeting of the Southern Maryland Agricultural Association are well advanced. The best known of these horses is the sprinter Crank, which has held his own in handicaps. Then there is Chimera, Ballymooney, High Time, Ballyconnell, Frank Macklin, a two-year-old brown filly by Colin—Torpenhow, and a two-year-old filly by Llangibby—Princess Caprice. These will all bear the silks of Samuel Ross of Washington. Mr. Burch does not appear to have any notion of attempting to train Ultimatum again. Ultimatum, whose feet always bothered him, has been retired to the stud.

Mr. Burch's right-hand man at Benning track is jockey Phil Musgrave, who has been on the ground for some time. It was not the good fortune of Musgrave to see service abroad, but he entered the army in the first draft, rose to the rank of sergeant at Charleston, S. C., and left the service with many handsome things written by his commanding officers on his discharge papers. Since leaving the army he has married and settled down in Washington. He weighs about 108 pounds in riding condition now, and he is always on the job. Mr. Burch is keenly anxious to have him reinstated, because he (Burch) has a strong stable of horses of various ages in training, and he needs badly the services of a capable rider.

Of the veteran horses Crank, Ballymooney and Frank Macklin, there is little to be said beyond that they have wintered well and will be ready to do their best at Bowie at the first asking. Crank does not look a bit the worse for his three years of rather hard campaigning. Frank Macklin, a foreign-bred four-year-old, which laid off racing last year after a fairly creditable two-year-old beginning, has matured into a handsome individual, and acts as though he can run. Ballymooney, which was light and gangling last year, is carrying more flesh this year and appears to be more robust. Ballyconnell is small of stature, but compact, and Mr. Burch believes that she will earn her oats from the start.

There are possibilities in Chimera, a colt that worked swiftly at Aqueduct last summer, but struck himself and only started twice. High Time is straight as to his tendons and 150 pounds heavier than he was at any time last year. There are sprinting possibilities in High Time, and he will begin to hustle for his oats early.

The Colin—Torpenhow two-year-old filly is a big-boned, big-bodied brown, a miss which reminds one of her brilliant sire—short-legged and well-muscled. Some of the Benning trainers pick this miss as the coming star of the winter's Benning thoroughbred colony. The Llangibby—Princess Caprice filly is a stalwart chestnut. She is of the family of Royal Marriage and Royal Coinage. A son of Royal Coinage brought $13,000 at public auction at Saratoga last summer. The Llangibby filly is big all over. She may not train successfully for the early meetings, but she looks like a miss that will win in good class company once she strikes her gait.

JOCKEY RODRIGUEZ' LEG MENDING

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 21.—Jockey Jose Rodriguez, who suffered a compound fracture of his right leg when he was thrown over the fence during the Fair Grounds meeting, probably will be able to leave the hospital within another week. James Arthur, his contract employer, is not going to wait for Rodriguez, but intends to ship the stable to Bowie this week and let Rodriguez follow.

Rodriguez' leg was so badly shattered that it is doubtful if he will be able to ride again until next fall. It has mended rapidly, and his health is splendid, but setting the leg properly was a delicate task, and the wound needs lots of time.

BIANCHI'S SMALL BUT SELECT STABLE

Sennings Park Will Carry His Colors in Kentucky Derby—F. J. Kelley's Breeding Plans.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 21.—O. A. Bianchi, familiarly known as "Daggie Smith," will start the Kentucky spring racing season with a small but select stable of horses, all of which are now in active training under his personal supervision at Churchill Downs, where they wintered splendidly. He fully expects to enjoy the measure of success that attended his stable last year, when a number of his horses, including Lucky B. and Sennings Park, proved to be good winners. Bianchi parted with Lucky B. last fall, but he still retains Sennings Park and a number of other good performers. He also has a small band of two-year-olds, all of which he regards as promising. Last year the stable was represented in the Kentucky Derby by Lucky B., which ran a creditable race, and this year Sennings Park will be the stable's standardbearer in the big event.

While the general discussion centers around cracks like Eternal and Billy Kelly as the most likely ones to take down the rich prize, owner Bianchi is of the belief that Sennings Park will have to be reckoned with on the afternoon of the contest, and his opinion is shared by a number of shrewd horsemen who have watched the colt in action both as a two-year-old and since he entered the three-year-old stage. The colt's record during the first year of his racing career is a most creditable one. He started fourteen times, won three races, was second twice and third on three occasions. His list of victories includes the winning of the Spring Trial Stakes at Douglas Park. His total money earnings for the year amounted to $6,431. Sennings Park is by Jim Gaffney—Irish Queen, and was bred by Mr. Bianchi. W. H. Luessing of this city, who died a short time ago, held an interest in the colt by virtue of owning the colt's dam. During the winter the colt has grown and broadened out and now stands 16 hands and is probably the equal in looks of any of the other Derby eligibles.

Among the other older horses in the Bianchi barn are Emerson Cochran, W. S. Culbertson, Lady Rachel, E. J. Lynch and Redland. The stable's younger division includes the following: Viola Gaffney, b. f, by Jim Gaffney—Viola B.; Emma C., ch. f, by Jim Gaffney—Precocity; Nancy Mc, b. f, by Transvaal—Maid of the Order, and a colt by General Roberts.

BUSY SEASON FOR JIM GAFFNEY.

Bianchi recently dissolved the partnership that had existed between him and John Wiggins in the breeding business and he has arranged for Jim Gaffney to stand at D. W. Scott's place near Pine Grove. He believes the coming season will be the banner one for Jim Gaffney, inasmuch as he has already booked thirty-five mares to the stallion. Among the better known ones are Zienap, Kittie Belle Brooks, What's Left, Olga Star, Sylvia Dunbar, Flying Frances, Gipsey Blair, Ducis, Gipsey Love and Sonia.

T. L. Pierce, who is in charge of the breeding interests of F. J. Kelley, the Chicago manufacturer, has arranged to ship the mares Snappy and Merry Whirl to John Wiggins' farm to be bred to Ormesdale, the stallion that Mr. Kelley recently acquired from R. T. Wilson. Arrangements have also been made to send Ichi Ban and Blind Beauty to Barbee's farm to be bred to Sweep. Dirty Face and Sourire will be sent to Headley's place to be mated with Jack Atkin, and Gobette will go to Dan Scott's to be bred to Jim Gaffney.

Mr. Kelley contemplates branching out on an extensive scale in the breeding business and is on the lookout for a suitable location for his establishment.

The Kelley horses in training, which were recently turned over to George Land to train, are now at Churchill Downs and will be ready for the opening of the season. Among the number are Pastoureau and Sans Peur II., both of which have been nominated to the Kentucky Derby; Saza-Namy and Brunette, the latter having been named for the Kentucky Oaks. The only two-year-old in trainer Land's care is a filly by Vulcain—Delusion, that has been named Drum Fire.

Tom Higgins, formerly assistant to starters Cassidy and Morrissey, is back at Camp Taylor after thirteen months of service in France. He was attached to the 17th Field Artillery, a part of the famous second division, and was in action at Verdun and Ballou Wood. At the latter place he was wounded in the knee, but has almost entirely recovered from the disability. He intends resuming his former occupation as soon as he is mustered out.

S. H. VELIE'S TWO FINE YEARLINGS

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 21.—Rush McCoy of Kansas City, manager of S. H. Velie's thoroughbred horse interests, was among the visitors to Lexington this week. His mission was to see his employer's two yearlings, five brood mares and two foals at the farm of Messrs. Carr & Piatt. He found them all in excellent condition and departed saying that he would come to Lexington in August to take up the two yearlings, both bay fillies, for training. One of the fillies is by Fair Play—Florin, the other is by Harrigan—Lady Hildreth, by Golden Garter. Lady Hildreth was mated with Yankee last year and is the only one of the Velie mares that will not produce this year. Star Berta has a chestnut filly by Ballot and Lady Teresa a bay filly by Delhi. Marion Rose II. is in foal to Delhi and Blue Cap to Vulcain.

SOME EXCITING FINISHES

Legotal and Minawand Furnish One That Arouses Spectators.

Four Noses Apart in the First Oaklawn Race—Derby Horses Taking Mile Gallops.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 21.—Thrilling finishes developed with the running of several dashes this afternoon and kept the big attendance at a high pitch of excitement while the duels were on, and even after the finish the suspense continued until the official placing was displayed. The battle indulged in by Legotal and Minawand in the fifth race was the most spirited, the pair fighting it out on even strides all during the stretch, with Connelly and Schuttinger, the respective riders, exerting their best efforts. Connelly, by virtue of being closest to the rail with Legotal, saved some ground and succeeded in getting the judges' eye. The Goldblatt filly's victory was not won by more than an inch.

Another similar finish came in the initial dash, with the exception that four racers took part in the grueling struggle and terminated noses apart, David Gideon's Castor just managing to win from Fun, with Miss Minks in third place and Miss Parnell following, with St. Allan a short distance back of the quartet.

Delightful weather was again the rule here, and the racing was over a lightning fast track. The attendance was of the usual good standard. B. Chapman's Bogart, which in a previous start here finished a distant follower, was the first to come under judicial ban, when he achieved an easy victory in the third race over some fairly good ones. His inconsistent pair of races prompted Judge Nelson to issue a ruling barring the entry of the horse here in future. Owner Chapman gave various reasons for the horse's improved showing this afternoon, but it was not convincing to the officials here. Bogart's inconsistency at New Orleans the past winter should have earned him disqualification from racing there. The race won by Bogart found Medusa the favorite, but much interference she suffered from brought about her undoing.

Solomon & Jarmon, the Arkansas turfmen, garnered a double during the afternoon with their H. C. Basch and Grey Eagle, but they also proved a target for the claiming brigade here, and both horses found new owners. H. C. Basch was secured by D. J. McDermid for $1,000, and Grey Eagle went to F. Gering for $1,000.

Kenward, winner of the fourth race, proved an outstanding surprise when he led for the entire mile and an eighth to beat Saint's Bridge, with Leta in third place and sore Thanksgiving following.

Omond has been bought from J. Livingston by M. Quinn, the Kansas City turfman. Pat Dunne will continue to train the colt.

Drummond, a Kentucky Derby candidate, was galloped a mile this morning in 1:44⅘. Eternal, hard held, covered his mile in 1:46 and Mormon was sent a half mile in 50 seconds.

Recent eastern arrivals express the belief that C. J. Fitz Gerald, who was in charge at the Empire City track last fall as its manager, will again fill that position this year and that he will also be the guiding spirit at the Laurel track next fall.

FEATURELESS DAY AT ORIENTAL PARK

Horses Suited by Distances of One Mile or Over Catered to Yesterday—Jockey Lunsford Departs.

HAVANA, Cuba, March 21.—Horses which favored going a long route were catered to at Oriental Park this afternoon, the last three races being at a mile or over. All three of these races proved good contests. In the fourth Rockport just managed to last long enough to beat the fast closing Jake Schas by a short head. Dragon Rock set a fast pace all the way in the fifth and defeated Clark M. by a length and a half. In the sixth Fritz Ernst showed the way and took the measure of Queen Trovato by a length.

Soldier jockey Pitz who rode four winners yesterday, started well this afternoon when he landed Rey Ennis winner of the first, but that was his only success.

H. Lunsford, who has been the first jockey for Kay Spence this winter, left for his home in Kentucky yesterday. After a short visit with his folks Lunsford will report to trainer J. F. Schorr of the E. B. McLean establishment, located at the Benning track.

Jockey W. Lang leaves for Belmont Park tomorrow to report to his employer, George Odom.

Edward Thornton, who has been booking here all winter, leaves shortly for Hot Springs, where he will spend a few weeks.

Ivry was claimed by H. B. Dalley for $1,150.

Jockey Wingfield was suspended for ten days and fined $25 for rough riding in the last race of the day.

MISS DAINGERFIELD CONSIDERS MOVING

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 21.—Miss Elizabeth Daingerfield has been visiting New York and Virginia looking over the horses and farms. She has an idea of moving to Virginia if a suitable breeding establishment can be procured. She was much interested in the horses at Belmont Park, and predicted that some of the younger element were desirable additions to the racing ranks.

Algernon Daingerfield, assistant secretary of the Jockey Club, has been in Virginia for a day or two. In conversation with such noted trainers and owners as W. P. Burch, William Garth, Samuel J. Ross and Edward S. McLean, they were unanimous in their opinion regarding the condition of the horses trained in that district. Mr. Burch says they are at least three weeks in advance of the season, intimating that he had horses ready to race the first day of the Maryland campaign.

Judge Joseph Murphy's suggestion to the Jockey Club to consider the abolition of blinkers on two-year-olds was not approved at the recent meeting of the Jockey Club and no action was taken on the question.

F. K. Sturgis, vice-chairman of the Jockey Club, submitted a letter to some of the stewards from Major Robert L. Gerry drafting a proposed international race. A copy of the letter was sent to all stewards for their opinion on such an event. Joseph McLennan has been appointed one of the judges at Havre de Grace. He will also fulfill the duties of scale clerk.

UNCLE SAM'S BIG GAME HUNTERS

Big Staff of Government Experts Constantly at Work and the Result.

Every small boy who owns an air rifle will begin plans for the future when he hears that the United States government actually employs keen-eyed followers of Daniel Boone and Kit Carson to shoot wolves, mountain lions, grizzly bears and other marauding but interesting beasts. There is a permanent staff of between 250 and 350 professional hunters connected with the Biological Survey of the Department of Agriculture, and all that these fortunate woodsmen, plainsmen and mountaineers have to do is to shoot the animals that prey on sheep and cattle in the western states! "Think of being paid a salary to hunt big game!" enviously cries the editor of Outing. "That's our idea of a good job!" Since the fall of 1915, when this corps of hunters was organized, it has done considerable execution.

The bag includes 60,473 coyotes, 8,094 bobcats, 1,829 wolves, 201 mountain lions and 137 bears. The government receives a neat little income from the pelts, too. For one year's kill this amounted to about $100,000.

Let us see just what damage a predatory animal can do. Take, for example, the case of one Wyoming stockman. Last May two male wolves visited his ranch and got away with one hundred head of sheep and seven colts. Then they turned their attention to the rancher's neighbor and hit him to the tune of fifty sheep. A Biological Survey hunter ran the marauding pair down and killed them.

Here are the government's estimates of the annual depredations among cattle and sheep by a single predatory animal: Wolf, $1,000; stock killing grizzly bear, $500; mountain lion, $500; bobcat, $50; coyote, $50.

RACING FORM SOLDIER'S WAR STORY

Private Tappenbeck in the Thick of French Battles Is Captured at End.

Here is a typical soldier's letter from one of Daily Racing Form's boys, linotype operator Paul Tappenbeck of Company F., 129th Infantry. It was written February 20 at Ettelbruck, Germany. After some personal gossip, Private Tappenbeck goes into occurrence, opinion and history in this way:

"The soldiers feel pretty sore about the States going 'dry' and say, 'Those guys slipped one over on us while we were away.'

"The 33d Division played the 35th Division a game of football and lost, 3 to 0. It was a great day for celebrities. Major-General Bell, General Todd, Colonel Milton Foreman and the Duchess of Luxemburg were among the many spectators. I wish I knew when we were coming home. There are so many rumors, not from a reliable source, though, and I am not placing any confidence in them. But we all hope and think it will be around the latter part of April or early in May. It has been awfully cold the last few weeks. The snow-topped hills which surround the city make it look very beautiful. But, when you write of home, that's when I am listening to you. I read in a Chicago paper that the boys of the 33d Division were satisfied and don't want to come home; also that they sleep in castles. This is not the truth. We all want to come home, and as soon as we can.

"While I am writing I may as well give you a brief history of our part in the war. We arrived in Brest, France, May 24, 1918. After staying there for six weeks, we took a train to Brussels, where we stayed for three weeks training with the British. Then we hiked to Amiens, near the Somme River. We stayed only a few days and marched 'up to the line' for the first time, being brigaded with the Australians. Then we went to Albert, on the British sector, and stayed there two weeks. A short time after that found us in Mancois for a short period in training when we went to Verdun. We occupied trenches on 'Dead Man's Hill,' 'Hill No. 304' and 'Death Valley.' The morning of the 'Big Drive' we held an outpost near where it began and withdrew when the barrage commenced. After that our trouble started. We had 'Jerry' on the run and did not stop until November 11. We stayed two weeks at 'Whizz Bang Hill,' near the Meuse River.

"Up to this time we had been in the trenches thirty days without relief and were nearly exhausted from loss of sleep and gas, of which we had plenty. Our relief finally came and we thought we were in for a long rest. But we were only shifted to the trenches again on another sector. This time it was Consemvoye woods in the Argonne. That was our final stay in the trenches, and a costly one, too, for we came out with about sixty men. After a short rest we were on our way to the St. Mihiel sector. We arrived there early Monday morning, November 11. Now we changed to open fighting and started out to find the enemy, but that morning it was awful foggy. We got lost in the fog from the rest of the company and ran right into one of the German trenches before we knew it. The Germans immediately fired upon us with their machine guns and grenades. In a few seconds we were surrounded and captured; fourteen in all being taken and ten wounded and killed. Our platoon was almost wiped out. It is a miracle I was not killed, being so close to the machine guns. I consider myself lucky indeed. Our captain was also wounded and captured, but he is now back in the States. The Germans did not keep us more than a few days. Then we returned to Verdun and the American camp sent us back to our company. That was an experience I shall never forget. Now, if we can only come home soon, I will call it square. Having much more to tell than I can write when I get back, I will close with best wishes to all."

CANADIAN-BRED TWO-YEAR-OLD RACERS

Names and Breeding of Juveniles Nominated for Breeders' Stakes of Next Year.

TORONTO, Ont., March 21.—Thirty-seven nominations were made for the Breeders' Stakes, to be run at Woodbine Park in 1920. As the race is for three-year-olds, those named for it are now two-year-olds, and it will be interesting to note the names and breeding of these youngsters, for in the event of the resumption of racing in Canada this year they will form the nucleus of the juvenile division in races for Canadian-bred horses. The conditions and entries to the Breeders' Stakes are as follows:

Breeders' Stakes, for three-year-olds foaled in the Dominion of Canada 1917, and owned there at time of starting. $2,000 added, of which $350 to second horse and $150 to third. The breeder of the winner to receive $100. One mile and an eighth. To be run during the year 1920 as the Ontario Jockey Club may direct. The Ontario Jockey Club reserves the right to cancel this race upon repayment of all entrance fees paid in advance.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

At Warrenton, Va., Gwyn Tompkins is busy with a dozen or more, the property of Edward M. Weld, that will open the spring season's campaign at Pimlico.

The good jumper Weldship will return to the races this year, according to eastern reports, despite the fact that when he was retired last fall it was thought his racing days were ended.

M. Daly is taking up the horses of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Jeffords at Berlin, Md., and will prepare them for an early Maryland campaign. Star Hampton and Routledge are the Jeffords' Preakness candidates.

W. F. Polson of automobile fame and once the owner of Billy Kelly, will send Vulcanite to Pimlico for the Preakness, War Tax for the Oaks and Pure American, Soldier, Packard and Horace Lerch for the Juvenile.

Ed Arlington, who recently purchased the Maryland Hotel in New York, has returned to his old business by buying a share in Sells-Floto circus. His horses will be raced in Maryland after the conclusion of the Hot Springs meeting.

Pecasta, the ten-year-old Peep o'Day mare, which formerly raced for "Red" Walker, has dropped a fine filly foal by Stanley Fay. The mare is now the property of Harry Sloane, and is stabled at T. J. Edward's place near Toronto, Ont.

CARMAN'S MERIDIAN TWO-YEAR-OLDS

Product of Carmandale Stud Finest Looking Band of Juveniles Training at Benning Track.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 21.—Richard F. Carman, who is preparing his string at Benning track for the impending spring meeting of the Southern Maryland Agricultural Association at Prince George Park, Bowie, Maryland, April 1 to 15 inclusive, has secured names for his Meridian two-year-olds. These youngsters are all products of Mr. Carman's Carmandale Stud, which is domiciled in Montgomery County, Maryland, just over the District of Columbia line, and they are among the finest looking two-year-olds training at Benning track. The star of the quintet of Meridians in last fall's trials and over-winter development is to be known as Carmandale. This one is the shapely bay son of Daruma, stands 15 hands 2½ inches already, and Mr. Carman believes that he will be a 16-hand horse by next spring. More than any of the others Carmandale suggests Meridian, a Kentucky Derby winner. It is the intention of Mr. Carman to give this youngster a race or so at Bowie and Havre de Grace and have him ready for the Pimlico features, the Pimlico Nursery and the Pimlico Spring Juvenile, which will be run in May.

The Meridian—Achieve colt, the biggest of the band and not the least prepossessing, is called Sandown, after the popular race course in England. Sandown is a half-brother of Achievement, a Hamilton Derby winner of a few years back, and now one of the government's most highly prized remount service stallions. This one may not come to hand as quickly as will some of his stable companions, but Mr. Carman expects him to be racing to his best form by the time the Saratoga meeting begins. He will be one of the Carman candidates for the Saratoga Special.

One of the fastest of the colts claims Paradise Queen, she the dam of that remarkably speedy son of The Turk, Pepper for dam. This one is called Ace of Aces. He is about the size of Carmandale and of the quick maturing type. Ace of Aces is another potential Saratoga Special candidate. Midian is the name that has been chosen for the son of Meridian—Venita Strome, a young daughter of Ben Strome, which is just beginning her career at the stud. The Meridian—Horizon colt is called Equator.

Like most of the sons and grandsons of Ben Brush, Meridian seems to possess the valued quality of prepotency. His two-year-olds at Benning, and his yearlings at Carmandale farm, are all bay in color, the bay shading to brown. Their points are black and they have little white hairs about them. They are remarkable for their bone development and the uniform distribution of their flesh.

IVAN THE TERRIBLE YEARLING PRIZED

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 21.—Robert Shinn and James Curry, local business men, this week bought from O. A. Bianchi and John S. Wiggins the yearling bay colt by Ivan the Terrible—Bertie V. (half-sister to the stake winners Cock o' the Walk, John Smulski and Stargowan, and to the yearling colt by Short Grass which Emil Herz recently bought from Capt. T. J. Clay for $6,000), by Sempronius—Ellangowan, by De Beauvoir. The colt is a handsome individual, and the new owners feel that they have in him a most worthy representative of the great Maria West family.

ROYAL QUEST IN HIGH DEMAND

Appreciation of Owner Kilmer's Beautiful Sister to the Unbeaten The Tetrarch.

It is little more than three years ago since I began trying to send Messrs. Corrigan and McKinney in the United States mares that would make their stud equal to what Mr. James R. Keene's had been, and with Miss Elizabeth Daingerfield (whose father had managed for his relative, Mr. Keene) in charge of their stud, all seemed likely to go well. They received sundry gems, such as Marion Hood (by Martagon—Maid Marian, dam of Polymelus), with a filly by Prince Palatine and in foal to Sunstar, for $10,000, and this, too, in the year when her three-year-old daughter Sunbonnet, by Sunstar, won the Kentucky Oaks and many other races; but the best bargain of all by far, to my mind, was the beautiful sister to The Tetrarch, in training and absolutely sound as a three-year-old in the spring of 1917, for $7,500. She had never run, having gone slightly amiss as a two-year-old just before a race for which she was being trained, but her owner, Mr. Kennedy, was confident about her future—if only there were racing in England. Be that as it may, I bought her for 1,500 guineas, and thought so much of her that, having authority to go to 2,000 guineas, I had cabled for permission to extend that limit, and had received unlimited permission. This will be unpleasant reading for Mr. Kennedy, but it is truth.

After I had bought her for 1,500 guineas Mr. Tattersall himself expressed surprise, and said he thought she compared favorably with the best fillies of the year. I mention these things to illustrate the vicissitudes of value in different countries. Messrs. Corrigan and McKinney, for some reason or other, agreed to differ, and suddenly sold off their stud. But what madness to let this particular filly go casually into the American market, where no one knew much about The Tetrarch! Marian Hood they, of course, did know about, for Sunbonnet had proved the value of her dam; and so Marian Hood and her then yearlings made three times what they cost; but the sister to The Tetrarch, then named Royal Quest, made only $5,000. Could anything be more ridiculous? She would at that time have made $25,000—possibly more!—in England.

I wrote out to get on track of the purchaser, and, later, her breeder, Mr. E. Kennedy, asked me if she could be bought; but from Miss Daingerfield I learned that she was bought by Mr. Willis Sharpe Kilmer, and that he is not likely to turn over his purchase. How little use there is in trying to buy Royal Quest may be judged from the fact that in the Souvenir Book of the Sun Briar Court Stud Mr. Willis Sharpe Kilmer has selected one out of thirty-eight of his brood mares for a full page illustration, and that one is Royal Quest. He probably would not sell her for any price at all, and the annoying thing is that he should have bought her for actually 500 guineas less than I had to give for her in this country. Such is bloodstock breeding, however, and both Mr. Corrigan and Mr. McKinney will probably live to regret the day when they suffered their stud to be dispersed.—W. Allison in London Sportsman.

CASTOR, away well and saving much ground on the turns, set a good pace, held on gamely in the stretch and won in the last stride. FUN raced forwardly throughout and held on well in the final drive. MISS MINKS was in a prominent position from the start, and but for coming wide into the stretch would have won. MISS PARNELL ran well and fought it out gamely all the way. ST.
